We deeply regret having published in the issue of this paper of the 11th June 1918 a letter from our correspondent in which the name of His Highness the Yuvaraja was mentioned. We realise that we were wrong in having permitted such a letter to appear in our Journal and we beg to offer to His Highness our humble and respectful apologies for the mistake committed.